Councilor Hill asked for an update from Mr. Boyles related to comments from Mary Bauer.

Councilor Snook made remarks about up-zoning in response to comments.

Mayor Walker made remarks in response to UVA parent comments regarding the university police chief and past policing in Charlottesville.

The meeting recessed at 8:47 p.m. and reconvened at 9:04 p.m.

ACTION ITEMS

12. PUBLIC HEARING/ORDINANCE: Approving a long-term lease of a portion of McIntire Park to the Botanical Garden of the Piedmont (Public hearing and 2nd reading)

City Manager Boyles provided a brief overview to introduce the second reading of the proposal.

Jill Trischman-Marks added comments about the Botanical Garden fundraising efforts, upcoming programming and overall objectives.

Mayor Walker opened the public hearing.

- Aaron Eichorst, city resident and fine arts coordinator, spoke in support of the resolution.
- Nathan Walton, city resident and a local non-profit director, spoke in support of the resolution.

Mayor Walker closed the public hearing.

On motion by Councilor Hill, seconded by Councilor Snook, Council by the following vote APPROVED the Ordinance: 5-0 (Ayes: Hill, Magill, Payne, Snook, Walker; Noes: none).

ORDINANCE APPROVING A LONG -TERM LEASE OF A PORTION OF MCINTIRE PARK TO THE BOTANICAL GARDEN OF THE PIEDMONT

Kristin Davis of the Botanical Garden of the Piedmont noted that she would correct clerical errors in the submitted ordinance for final certification.

13. ORDINANCE *: Continuity of Governance Ordinance (enacted on 1 reading with at least four-fifths vote)

City Manager Boyles provided a brief summary.

Mayor Walker stated concerns about in-person school and meetings and spoke in support of more restrictions on businesses.

On motion by Councilor Hill, seconded by Vice Mayor Magill, Council by the following vote APPROVED the Ordinance: 5-0 (Ayes: Hill, Magill, Payne, Snook, Walker; Noes: none).

ORDINANCE TO ENACT TEMPORARY CHANGES IN CERTAIN DEADLINES, AND TO MODIFY PUBLIC MEETING AND PUBLIC HEARING PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES, AND TO ADDRESS CONTINUITY OF CITY GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC DISASTER, FOR A SIX-MONTH PERIOD EXTENDING THROUGH MARCH 18, 2022

14. RESOLUTION: Approving the Charlottesville City School Board to proceed with a design concept process for a School Reconfiguration Project (1 reading)

Lisa Larson-Torres, Chair of the City School Board, introduced the resolution which was approved unanimously by the School Board. She introduced new School Superintendent Dr. Royal Gurley.

Dr. Gurley shared that this was his first day on the job and he introduced VMDO consultant Wyck Knox who made the presentation.

On motion by Councilor Hill, seconded by Councilor Snook, Council by the following vote APPROVED the resolution: 5-0 (Ayes: Hill, Magill, Payne, Snook, Walker; Noes: none).

RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS APPROVAL FOR THE CHARLOTTESVILLE CITY
SCHOOL BOARD TO PROCEED WITH A DESIGN CONCEPT
PROCESS FOR A SCHOOL RECONFIGURATION PROJECT
(Projected Cost: $75,000,000)

BE IT RESOLVED, that the City of Charlottesville’s Five-Year Capital Improvement Plan (CIP) currently includes a funding placeholder in FY 2025 in the amount of only $50 million for a School Reconfiguration project, to include the following schools: Walker Upper Elementary and Buford Middle School;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that through a public engagement and evaluation of several design options, design option 3.1 has been selected as the option that best meets the objectives of the project and is estimated to cost $75 million dollars;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Charlottesville City School Board is hereby authorized to proceed with obtaining conceptual design plans for a school configuration project, with the design to contemplate a projected cost of not more than $75 million (inclusive of design, engineering, and construction costs, and standard contingencies). While the City awaits the results of the conceptual design process, the City’s CIP shall be updated for FY 2023 to reflect the $75 million projected cost.

GENERAL BUSINESS

15. REPORT: Albemarle Charlottesville Regional Jail Authority update

Martin Kumer, Superintendent of the Albemarle Charlottesville Regional Jail (ACRJ), and Tony Bell of Moseley Architects, made a presentation about proposed renovations to the jail, and a needs assessment to determine the appropriate number of beds to accommodate the jail.

Mayor Walker made comments as the liaison to the ACRJ Board.

Councilor Payne asked about project costs and the portion that would be attributed to the City. Mr. Kumer advised that the City's portion would be 38% of the remainder after State funds are factored in.

Vice Mayor Magill made additional comments about physical conditions of the jail and about state funding.

Responding to Councilor Snook, Mr. Bell forecasted that the project would move forward with design in summer of 2023, with construction potentially starting in 2025.

The meeting recessed at 10:37 p.m. and reconvened at 10:42 p.m.

16. DISCUSSION: Police Chief termination

Mayor Walker turned the meeting over to Mr. Boyles to begin the discussion.

Mr. Boyles gave an explanation of factors that influenced his decision to exercise a no-cause termination of Chief Brackney's employment contract. He advised that while strides were made in bringing the Charlottesville Police Department into 21st Century policing, it became evident to him that an immediate change in leadership was needed based on implementation and other factors. He provided answers to questions asked at previous Council meetings.

Council discussion ensued and included concerns about the influence of the Police Benevolent Association, about avoiding a return to older models of policing, the need to be aware that desired reform will involve employment turnover, and support for many of the policy and disciplinary decisions enacted by Chief RaShall Brackney.

Mayor Walker asked additional questions of Mr. Boyles and read several responses to police department survey questions.

17. DISCUSSION: Police Civilian Review Board Chair

Councilor Payne shared that he met with Executive Director Hansel Aguilar. Mr. Payne advised that the behavior of the Chair of the PCRB was not appropriate and that community trust in the ability of the PCRB to show impartiality and neutrality has been harmed by Mr. Bellamy's actions. He voiced a concern that with the removal of Bellamy Brown, other board members would likely leave. He suggested implementing a Code of Conduct and a Code of Ethics for the PCRB.

Vice Mayor Magill suggested that a Code of Ethics be implemented for all boards and commissions.

Councilor Snook agreed that Mr. Brown's statement was inappropriate and stated that the parameters around the First Amendment are unclear.

Councilor Payne expressed concern about the need for the PCRB to adopt its ordinance, bylaws and hearing procedures, then consider reconstitution. Councilor Hill agreed.

Mayor Walker shared concerns about the fuel behind the comments made by Bellamy Brown and the platform which he used as a Board Chair to make the statements.

OTHER BUSINESS and QUESTIONS FOR CITY MANAGER FOLLOW-UP

There were no other business items or follow-up questions for the City Manager.

MATTERS BY THE PUBLIC

Mayor Walker opened the floor for comments from the public.

- Don Gathers spoke about PCRB Chair concerns and the possibility of building new schools versus reconfiguration.
- Myra Anderson spoke about comments from Councilors and the City Manager regarding the termination of the employment contract of the police chief, the lack of transparency, and the loss of trust from the most vulnerable members of the community.
- Tanesha Hudson spoke about selective collaboration, and councilor and city manager actions related to the termination of Chief Brackney.
- Harold Folley on behalf of the People's Coalition spoke about the need to have a strong PCRB and hold members accountable.
- Marcia Geyer suggested hiring a dedicated staff member for energy grants.
- Katrina Turner spoke about the experience of being a Black person in Charlottesville.
- Jeffrey Fogel shared concerns about Mr. Boyles's approach to searching for an Interim Police Chief. He referenced Bellamy Brown's attempt to talk to his client who has an active complaint with the PCRB.
- Nancy Carpenter, spoke as a person appointed to the PCRB, about inappropriate actions by the PCRB Chair Bellamy Brown.
- Ang Conn shared concerns about the City Manager and PCRB Chair as related to the Police Benevolent Association. She also shared concerns about the usage of police cameras and requested that the public be allowed to view the SWAT video referenced in several meetings.
- Abby Guskind asked who authorized an MOU between UVA police and Charlottesville Police Department, and the need to value local Black children who experience community violence. She asked for removal of Bellamy Brown from the PCRB.
- Gloria Beard spoke about the process to terminate the police chief, and the departures of several Black leaders.
- Zyahna Bryant addressed a comment from Marcia Geyer. She also spoke about the turnover of Black leadership, and the effects of a "dragnet" led by former Charlottesville Chief of Police Longo, who is now Chief of University Police at UVA. She asked Council to consider the marginalized community in their decisions.

Mayor Walker played two recordings of City Manager Boyles in a discussion about Chief Brackney's termination and she made closing remarks.

The meeting adjourned at 1:33 a.m.
