Virtual/electronic meeting via Zoom

The Charlottesville City Council met in an electronic meeting on Tuesday, April 12, 2022, in accordance with a local ordinance amended and re-enacted on March 7, 2022, to ensure continuity of government and prevent the spread of disease during the coronavirus State of Emergency. Mayor Lloyd Snook called the meeting to order at 5:32 p.m. and Clerk of Council Kyna Thomas called the roll, noting all councilors present: Mayor Lloyd Snook, Vice Mayor Juandiego Wade, and Councilors Sena Magill, Michael Payne and Brian Pinkston.

On motion by Pinkston, seconded by Magill, Council voted unanimously to amend the agenda to include a first reading of the proposed meals tax levy.

On motion by Magill, seconded by Pinkston, Council voted unanimously to adopt the meeting agenda as amended.

ACTION ITEMS

1. ORDINANCE: Enacting a Budget and Tax Levy for Fiscal Year 2023

Mayor Snook made a disclosure statement regarding his wife's retiree status with the City of Charlottesville and advised that per advice from the City Attorney the increase in pension would not disqualify him from voting.

Interim City Manager Michael Rogers and City Attorney Lisa Robertson gave a brief summary of the budget.

a. ORDINANCE*: Approving a budget and annual appropriation of funding for the City of Charlottesville for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2023

On motion by Pinkston, seconded by Wade, Council by the following vote ADOPTED the Ordinance: 5-0 (Ayes: Magill, Payne, Pinkston, Snook, Wade; Noes: none).
