

CHARLOTTESVILLE CITY COUNCIL MEETING
August 1, 2022 at 4:00 PM
In person: Council Chamber, 605 E. Main Street
Virtual/electronic: Zoom

The Charlottesville City Council met in an electronic meeting on Monday, August 1, 2022, in accordance with a local ordinance amended and re-enacted on March 7, 2022, to ensure continuity of government and prevent the spread of disease during the coronavirus State of Emergency. Mayor Lloyd Snook called the meeting to order and Clerk of Council Kyna Thomas called the roll, noting the following councilors present: Michael Payne, Brian Pinkston, and Mayor Lloyd Snook. Councilor Sena Magill provided notice earlier in the day that she would arrive late because of a medical procedure that would prevent her from being present. Vice Mayor Juandiego Wade provided advance notice that he may be unable to attend because of international travel that would prevent him from joining in person or electronically.

On motion by Payne, seconded by Pinkston, Council voted unanimously to adopt the meeting agenda (Ayes: Payne, Pinkston, Snook; Noes: none; Absent: Magill, Wade).

REPORTS

1. Presentation: FY2024 City Budget overview

Interim City Manager Michael C. Rogers stated the purpose of the agenda item. Krisy Hammill, Director of Budget made the presentation using the following agenda:

- I. Key Dates
- II. FY2024 Budget Process Review
- III. Review of Budget Guidelines and Strategic Goals
- IV. Historical Perspective – General Fund
- V. General Fund Trends
- VI. Key Drivers for Budget Development
- VII. Questions and Discussion

Councilor Pinkston referenced an email from Councilor Magill requesting to change the budget approval deadline, and he asked about restarting the strategic planning process. Mr. Rogers stated that the American Rescue Plan funds proposal on the agenda includes funding for engaging a consultant to help with the strategic planning process.

Councilor Payne asked questions regarding funding to address wage compression in the organization, climate action planning, the Affordable Housing Plan, the Regional Transit Vision and Marcus Alert system.

Mr. Rogers referenced two drivers for addressing employee wages: 1) the Classification and Compensation study and 2) Collective bargaining. He stated that the current salary study is on schedule to be finalized in December. Deputy City Manager Sam Sanders stated that the team anticipates presenting the Climate Action Study document to Council in October.

Mayor Snook asked about the formula for school funding. Mr. Rogers stated that he would tee up a conversation with Schools.

Councilor Magill joined the meeting at 4:37 p.m.

Mr. Rogers indicated that he will need input from Council on affordable housing benchmarks and dynamics needed to move regional transit forward.

Discussion ensued about modifying the budget approval deadline; however, no change was made. Mr. Rogers stated that staff will look into options.

The meeting recessed at 5:03 p.m. and resumed at 6:30 p.m.

BUSINESS SESSION

City Council began the business meeting with a moment of silence.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Councilor Pinkston announced the Commissioners and Cans Food and Fund Drive to benefit area food banks.

Councilor Payne announced the opening of the Charlottesville Homeowners Assistance Program (CHAP) application period.

CONSENT AGENDA*

Clerk of Council Kyna Thomas read the following Consent Agenda items into the record:

2. MINUTES: June 21 special meeting; July 18 special meeting
3. RESOLUTION: Authorizing a refund of $8,132.19 to a taxpaying entity or business, for business license tax paid in error for 2022 (2nd reading)

RESOLUTION

Authorizing a refund of $8,132.19 to a taxpaying entity or business, for business license taxes paid in error for 2022

WHEREAS, the Commissioner of the Revenue has determined that a taxpaying entity or business paid 2022 Business License Tax to the City of Charlottesville in error; and

WHEREAS, that taxpaying entity or business has requested a refund of the amount paid in error; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner of the Revenue has certified that a refund of taxes paid is due in the amount of $8,132.19; and

WHEREAS, City Code Section 30-6(b) requires City Council approval for any tax refund exceeding $2,500.00; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council for the City of Charlottesville, Virginia, that the City Council hereby authorizes the City Treasurer to issue a refund of $8,132.19 from GL 410150 (business license tax revenue) or from GL 1631001000 (Citywide reserve) as necessary, payable to that taxpaying entity or business.

4. RESOLUTION: Approving Settlement of Disputed Real Estate Assessment (Omni Hotel) (2nd reading)

RESOLUTION

Approving a Settlement Agreement and Release between the Omni Charlottesville Virginia Corporation and the City of Charlottesville, made as of July 1, 2022

WHEREAS the Omni Charlottesville Virginia Corporation (“Omni”) and the City of Charlottesville (“City”) are parties to an action pending in the Circuit Court of the City of Charlottesville styled Omni Charlottesville Virginia Corporation v. City of Charlottesville, Virginia, Case No. CL21-116 (the “Action”), addressing the real estate tax assessments for the Omni property for tax years 2020 and 2021; and

WHEREAS Omni currently has an appeal of the City’s assessment of the Omni property for tax year 2022 pending before the City’s Board of Equalization (the “BOE Appeal”); and

WHEREAS Omni and the City wish to settle the disputes between them and dismiss the Action and the BOE Appeal on the terms and conditions stated below; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Charlottesville, Virginia THAT a Settlement Agreement and Release made between Omni and the City as of July 1, 2022 is hereby ratified and approved, upon the following terms and conditions:

1. Settlement Payment. In consideration of the release set forth in this Agreement, the City shall refund to Omni, and agrees to accept, a payment in the principal amount of $135,304.57, plus accrued interest in the amount of $14,794.62 as of June 20, 2022, with interest accruing thereafter at the rate of $37.07 per diem (collectively the “Settlement Payment”), as a refund of a portion of the real property taxes imposed on real property owned by Omni, known as 212 Ridge McIntire Road, Charlottesville, Virginia, bearing Parcel No. 330155L00 (the “Property”). The Settlement Payment amount includes the refunds of taxes and interest due to Omni based on the revised assessments set forth in Paragraph No. 3 of this Agreement.

2. Dismissal. Upon receipt of the Settlement Payment, counsel for Omni shall endorse and deliver to counsel for the City an Agreed Order dismissing the Actions, with prejudice.

3. Compromise Assessments for Tax Years 2020, 2021, and 2022. For purposes of this settlement, the City shall set the assessment of the Property for tax years 2020-2022 as follows: $40.0 million for tax year 2020, $30.0 million for tax year 2021, and $30.6 million for tax year 2022. Due to the compromise assessment for tax year 2022, the real estate tax installment due on the Property to the City no later than December 5, 2022, shall be $146,880.00.

4. No Admissions. The parties acknowledge that the City's assessments of the Property for tax years 2020-2022 remain in dispute. Omni maintains that the City's assessments are erroneous and significantly exceed the fair market value of the Property. The City maintains that its assessments are not erroneous and are at the fair market value of the Property. Accordingly, the parties agree that nothing in this Agreement or the performance hereof shall be taken as an admission or concession of any type or kind regarding or relating to the Property's actual fair market value for tax years 2020-2022.

5. Mutual Releases. In consideration of the promises and rights granted in this Agreement, the sufficiency of which is expressly acknowledged, Omni discharges and releases the City and its officers, employees, agents, attorneys, and representatives, from all claims, debts, suits, actions, charges, demands, judgments, costs, executions, liabilities and all other obligations, whether in contract, tort, or other, known and unknown, both legal and equitable, which have been brought or could have been brought, relating to the subject matter of the Actions or related in any way to the City's real property tax assessments of the Property for the tax years 2020, 2021, and/or 2022.

In consideration of the promises and rights granted in this Agreement, the sufficiency of which is expressly acknowledged, the City discharges and releases Omni and its shareholders, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, and representatives, from all claims, debts, suits, actions, charges, demands, judgments, costs, executions, liabilities and all other obligations, whether in contract, tort, or other, known and unknown, both legal and equitable, which have been brought or could have been brought, relating to the subject matter of the Actions or related in any way to the City's real property tax assessments for the Property for the tax years 2020, 2021, and/or 2022.

6. Fees and Costs. Each party shall bear its own attorney's fees and costs.

7. Merger. No promise or agreement not herein expressed has been made by, between or among the parties, and in executing this Agreement, the parties are not relying upon any statement or oral representations made to them by each other or by anyone else who has not acted for them or on their own behalf but are each relying solely upon their own judgment. No consideration has been given, or is or has been offered, promised, expected, or held out other than as provided herein, and no conditions precedent to the effectiveness of this Agreement exist other than as expressly provided herein. This Agreement creates no new rights other than as expressly provided herein.

8. Full and Final Settlement. The parties understand that this is a full and final disposition of the claims and disputes between them, both as to the existence, and the nature and extent of, liability by any party except as specified herein. The parties understand and agree fully that this Agreement constitutes a compromise settlement and is mutual, final, and binding upon the parties.

9. Compromised Claims. The parties understand and agree that this Agreement constitutes the settlement of disputed claims, that liability has been denied by all parties, and that this Agreement, the consideration therefor, and all negotiations relating thereto, are for settlement purposes only and shall not be construed as an admission of liability or responsibility for any wrongful act or omission at any time on the part of any party. Accordingly, the parties agree to this compromise in lieu of litigation and in consideration of the avoidance of litigation, its expenses, and the potential risk of loss, and for no other reason. The parties further agree that this Agreement shall not be admissible or usable in any future lawsuit or tax controversies between the parties relating to the City's assessments of the Property for ad valorem tax purposes for tax year 2023 and/or any subsequent tax years.

10. Modifications. No modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless it is in writing and signed by all parties, with the approval of the Charlottesville City Council as may be required by Virginia law.

11. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of all parties, their successors, and permitted assigns, and each of them.

12. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

13. Authority. Each signor warrants that he/she has full legal authority to execute this Settlement Agreement on behalf of the parties.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with Virginia law. In the event any litigation arises concerning enforcement of this Agreement, venue shall be a court of competent jurisdiction in the City of Charlottesville, Virginia. This Agreement has been read by the parties hereto, and where appropriate, by the attorneys for all of the parties hereto, and the parties understand its content and are satisfied with its terms.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Mayor is hereby authorized to execute a written Settlement Agreement and Release, upon the terms stated above within this Resolution, upon the approval of the City Attorney as to the form of such written Settlement Agreement and Release.

8. RESOLUTION: Comprehensive Signage Plan for 920 E. High Street

RESOLUTION

Approving a Comprehensive Signage Plan for 920 East High Street

WHEREAS the owner of a development located at 920 East High Street (“Landowner”) submitted an application seeking approval of a comprehensive signage plan for the medical office building located on this site as presented, referenced, and incorporated into the City staff report dated July 12, 2022 in this matter (“Proposed Comprehensive Signage Plan”); and

WHEREAS on July 12, 2022, the City’s Entrance Corridor Review Board and the City’s Planning Commission reviewed the Landowner’s Proposed Comprehensive Signage Plan and recommended approval of the plan with conditions; and

WHEREAS in accordance with Section 34-1045(c) of the Charlottesville City Code, City Council has determined that:

- (1) There is good cause for deviating from a strict application of the requirements of Section 34-1020, et seq. (City Code Chapter 34, Article IX, Division 4 – Signs), and
- (2) The Proposed Comprehensive Signage Plan, with the modifications recommended by the Planning Commission/Entrance Corridor Review Board, will serve the public purposes and objectives set forth within City Code Section 34-1021 at least as well, or better, than the signage that would otherwise be permitted for this development; now, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council for the City of Charlottesville, Virginia, that the Proposed Comprehensive Signage Plan for 920 East High Street is approved subject to the following conditions:

- a. Signs N01, N05, and N06: (Monuments) Externally lit. Lamping will be dimmable, have a Color Temperature (CT) not exceeding 3,000K, and have a Color Rendering Index (CRI) not less than 80, preferably not less than 90, and
- b. Signs N02, N03 and N04: (Building address numbers) Not illuminated. Holes for anchors will be within the mortar joints. No holes will be made into the brick and/or stone.

Mayor Snook invited comments on the Consent Agenda. No speakers came forward.

On motion by Pinkston, seconded by Payne, Council by the following vote ADOPTED the Consent Agenda: 4-0 (Ayes: Magill, Payne, Pinkston, Snook; Noes: none; Absent: Wade).

CITY MANAGER REPORT

Interim City Manager Michael Rogers reported on the following items:

- The Government Finance Officers Association awarded a Certificate for Achievement in Excellence for financial reporting to the City for the 42nd year for the FY21 City Budget.
- Charlottesville ranked 22 out of 2300 cities as best places to live by Livability Magazine.
- The Economic Development Department is offering a fourth round of the BRACE Grant for city businesses through September 2.
- On July 19 the City closed on 921 E. Jefferson Street, adding parking spaces to the city's parking program that will become available for monthly leases.
- The Office of Economic Development has issued a Request for Proposal for a qualified consulting team to develop a comprehensive Economic Development strategy plan for the next five years.
- Mr. Rogers attended the Rivanna Authorities board meetings.
- The Committee for the Preservation Maintenance and Security of the Downtown Mall convened last week and will begin evaluating some of the long-standing issues on the Mall as shared by many business owners and residents. The committee will assess some immediate changes and hold discussions with business owners in preparation for the 50th anniversary of the Mall. Updates will be provided over the upcoming months.

- He read a safety and emergency preparedness statement in response to questions regarding the fifth anniversary of the August 11 and 12, 2017 incidents in the city. He announced the street closure for Heather Heyer Way and shared phone numbers for the Behavioral Regional Wellness Line (434-230-9704) and the Help Happens Here referral line (434-227-0641).
- The search for a police chief is underway and Polihire, recruitment consultant, will establish a confidential line for feedback. He provided additional information about the selection process.
- He provided information regarding increases to police department salaries and proposed increases for other public safety salaries and Charlottesville Area Transit employees to address numerous vacancies. He stated that the current compensation study will address other employee salaries and he expects the process of Collective Bargaining to begin in late Fall.
- Regarding an issue raised about employees in the police department who were not working on January 6, 2021, Mr. Rogers stated that he looked into the matter and discovered that on January 5, 2021 there were 37 people absent; January 6, 2021 there were 31 officers absent; and on January 7, 2021 there were 25 officers absent but they were mostly on regularly scheduled days off. He did not find anything that raised an alarm. Regarding concerns expressed on social media about a specific employee, it was found that the person was employed in the Information Technology Department. He summarized investigative measures addressing the employee's actions including referral to the FBI and interviews resulting in no criminal charges, a personal conversation with the employee, and the employee having provided a letter of apology to the City Manager. He concluded that no further action or review is warranted in this case.

COMMUNITY MATTERS

1. QuarFarrah Humes, city resident, spoke about engagement of the Comprehensive Plan to create more housing and opportunities for lower income residents. She requested holding the developers accountable.
2. Rosia Parker, city resident, spoke about dangerous two-way streets. She referenced a 2017 resolution from the People's Coalition specifying membership positions on the Police Civilian Review Board. She mentioned that she has not been appointed to the Police Civilian Review Board after applying multiple times.
