How CSP supports our Scholars

- CSP typically awards 10 renewable Promise Scholarships annually
- CSP awards can fund up to $13,000 of the cost of a technical certification program, or 2- or 4-year undergraduate education
- First-year awards are typically $2,500, with renewal awards increasing by $500 each year.
- Each Scholar is assigned a local adult volunteer Navigator who supports, advises, and encourages the student throughout the post-secondary course of study

Who is eligible for a CSP Promise Scholarship?

Low- to Moderate-Income People seeking to further their education who fit into one of the following categories:

- CHS Seniors residing in the City of Charlottesville
- CHS Graduates or GED recipients residing in the City of Charlottesville
- City of Charlottesville Employees
- Charlottesville City School System Employees

Preston Coiner Scholarship

- Established by the Coiner family in 2015 in honor of Preston Coiner
- Administered by CSP, and funded by the Preston Coiner Endowment
- One renewable award available per year, with annual payout calculated on a percentage of the Preston Coiner Endowment
- Application requires an original essay on some aspect of local history
- Open to Charlottesville or Albemarle public or private high school seniors or adult high school graduates residing in the City or County
