4. BUSINESS MATTERS

a. Chair update

- i. Sent letters regarding Anna Mendez's concerns about hotels and motels denying service to clients working with Partner for Mental Health
- ii. Spoke at last City Council meeting regarding treatment of Black employees, as well as support for Jefferson School's proposal for the disposition of the Robert E. Lee statue
- iii. Would like to circle back to Victoria's issue she will be discussing about tenant assertions
  - Todd, Mary, and other individuals had a meeting with residents of Midway Manor to discuss conditions there; residents raised significant concerns about lack of repairs and other concerns
  - 2. Had decided to hold a public hearing about subsidized housing conditions in the city
    - a. Chair took action on this, including talking to Victoria and others from LAJC, individuals from PHAR, and Carrie from Midway Manor
    - All expressed enthusiasm for holding a special public hearing (not at the January regular HRC meeting, but at a special time)
      - Hearing is for residents in any subsidized housing in Charlottesville
      - ii. Currently aiming for the last full week in January (beginning 1/24/21) around 6pm; checking with the City now for availability
- iv. Acknowledges issue of the number of individuals who will be on the Human Rights Commission in January
  - Did not receive new applications for the Commission, and several current members did not reapply

b. OHR staff report

- i. Continuation of HRC application and membership discussion
  - 1. Todd talked to Maxicelia Robinson from the clerk's office today about this issue
    - a. As it currently stands, the Commission would be down to five members as of 3/1/22
    - Todd asked Maxicelia if there would be a chance for individuals to reapply, since applications open every quarter if there are vacancies
    - c. Could also request Council for a 30-day window application opening for January
      - i. Already sent in this request
      - ii. Council will make appointment decisions on 3/20/22
  - 2. Encourages current Commission members to urge people they think would be a good fit to apply
    - Todd will send out information as soon as application is open again; will hear back from Maxicelia sometime after 12/20/21
  - 3. Commissioner asks how individuals know their application was received, as she never received confirmation

- a. Todd will ask Maxicelia about this
- b. Another Commissioner did receive confirmation, but both Commissioners' applications were received
- 4. Chair adds that Commission really needs to encourage people to apply because in addition to wanting a robust Commission, the Commission requires 7 members to have a quorum
  - Could change this rule in January, but if the bylaws are not changed, the Commission will be unable to have a quorum
  - b. Asks Todd for new timeline for applications so more people can apply
    - i. Will also plan to alter bylaws about what constitutes a quorum in January
    - Todd will send out an email as soon as he finds out when applications will be reopened
- Commissioner asks to clarify whether HRC is accepting applications from those who do not live within city limits, but still have strong ties to the city
  - a. OHR staff answers yes—this is written into the Ordinance
- ii. To adhere to the rule of 5 days' advance written notice, changes in rules and procedures for January are in Box
  - 1. This includes amendments about the quorum, ad-hoc versus standing committees, and Martha's Rules
  - 2. Todd will send out a link to these
- iii. OHR staff report is attached in agenda packet
  - 1. Even as of only November, OHR is already 700 more contacts over last year
  - 2. Last year's average was 5 per day; this year's is 11 per day
    - a. This is up considerably even from 2019 before the Office's COVID closure; 2019 average was 7 per day
- iv. FHAP revisions to the Ordinance are currently under review by the City Attorney's office; has asked OHR to do some follow-up with Fairfax, which is the only existing FHAP in existence in VA besides the Virginia Fair Housing Office itself
- v. As of 12/16/21, the Outreach and Administrative Specialist for the Office of Human Rights is a posted position on the City's website
  - 1. Go to Human Resources page and search recent postings
    - a. Listed under the City Manager's office
  - 2. If anyone knows an interested individual who has a question, let Todd know
  - 3. Application will be open until 1/7/22, but will be extended if necessary
- vi. Todd has been in regular contact with a couple residents from Midway Manor
  - Wrote a letter outlining residents' concerns from the meeting to WHH Trice, the property manager
    - Specifically requested meeting with corporate staff; no response yet

b. Elevators continue to have problems

5. WORK SESSION

- a. Victoria Horrock's presentation regarding tenant's assertion bill
  - i. Chair provides background:
    - At the Midway Manor meeting, all felt frustration that the burden to fix problems experienced by residents has fallen to the residents themselves
    - Because Midway Manor houses many elderly and disabled individuals, these people are not always able to take serious legal action by themselves
    - 3. Chair and Victoria talked about options, and Victoria brought up a bill being proposed before the General Assembly
    - 4. HRC cannot do its own lobbying, but it can recommend legislative priorities to the City for the upcoming session
  - ii. Victoria is a Housing Attorney at LAJC, so most cases are on behalf of tenants
    - 1. At this point, most clients have complaints about conditions
    - 2. Most affordable housing has bad conditions issues, whether this be from willful neglect by property owners or a lack of funding
    - 3. Tenants face many challenges to get landlords to fix these concerns, including logistical legal barriers and fear of retaliation
    - 4. LAJC often receives questions about whether tenants can file group tenant's assertions
  - iii. A tenant's assertion is a claim one makes when enforcing a lease or health and safety provisions; a complaint filed against a landlord for failure to fulfill an obligation
    - 1. Currently, tenants cannot file group tenant's assertions
      - This makes it difficult for tenants to individually take the risk to speak out an entity with many more resources
  - iv. Two primary ways that tenants can enforce their lease or provisions of VA Residential Landlord and Tenant Act:
    - Tenant's assertion: requires facing landlord in General District Court; there are many barriers
      - a. Must have given landlord written notice (landlords will often ask tenants to call the maintenance line, which can take months)
      - b. Must give landlord 14-30 days to complete the repairs
      - c. Only after this may a tenant file a tenant's assertion in court
      - Must also pay rent into escrow into the court and be current on rent, which is a big barrier for low-income tenants
    - Tenant's remedy by repair (repair and deduct)
      - Must give landlord notice and wait 14 days to see if landlord repairs problem
      - b. Then can pay a licensed repair person to do repairs and deduct either that amount from their rent or up to $1500 from one month's rent (whichever is greater)
      - c. A great solution, but only if a tenant has $1500 in the bank to pay the licensed professional up front—difficult for low-income tenants

- Also, for problems like with Midway Manor's elevators, $1500 will not be enough, so other human rights issues like mold, pests, and accessibility will not be addressed
- v. There will likely be a bill at the upcoming General Assembly session to give localities more power to enforce health and safety provisions of the Landlord and Tenant Act
  - The Landlord and Tenant Act requires landlords to provide fit and habitable premises for tenants, but localities cannot currently easily enforce this, even when there is a public safety issue
  - Bill would allow attorney or any city or county to enforce the provisions of the VRLTA in Circuit Court
    - a. Could ask for an injunction or damages on behalf of tenants, as long as it related to health and safety
  - 3. Would hugely expand powers of localities and help barriers that tenants encounter when filing claims themselves
  - 4. Oftentimes, localities know there is a problem but feel they cannot do anything to help
- vi. Poor conditions in affordable housing are an issue that disproportionately affects communities of color across the state
- vii. Commissioner asks if the upcoming legislation will be an amendment to the Landlord and Tenant Act, and would like to hear more about what increased enforcement authority would look like (particularly what options it would give Charlottesville residents)
  - Proposal would allow the Charlottesville City Attorney to bring forth a case on behalf of tenants or behalf of the City itself in Circuit Court
  - Could ask for an injunction or damages (could ask a court to order a landlord to fix problems, or could ask landlord to pay to compensate tenants/pay to a fund to compensate tenants or the City for resources it had to exhaust to fix problems)
  - 3. In Circuit Court instead of General District Court where tenants usually enforce their rights
  - 4. Same Commissioner asks if there is anything in the amendment about legal fees—will this be provided by the City?
    - Victoria responds that she does not believe there is anything specific right now, but she can ask people working on the language about how legal fees would be apportioned
    - Fees could only be enforced by the City Attorney, so Victoria is unsure what would happen if the City tried to hire a private attorney to assist
    - c. There would not be legal fees for tenants involved; Victoria did not see anything to suggest they would get their attorney's fees covered in a successful suit, but this is something she can follow up on

- 5. Commissioner says she could imagine this being very helpful in a group setting where no one person is able to put themselves out there; asks Victoria to talk more about how difficult it is for tenants to do this on their own and if she has seen tenants do this successfully on their own
  - a. Victoria recalls a recent case in which a client's heat was out; Victoria had to give notice to the landlord that client was going to file a tenant's assertion, but could not do so until days later, after which landlord still did not get the heat fixed immediately, so the family went without heat for over a week
  - b. Charlottesville is better than other localities because landlords are known entities, but for private landlords, tenants have to track down the actual company that owns the building-- a difficult task for tenants filing cases on their own
  - c. Timing cases is also difficult because if a tenant tries to file in the middle of a month, rent was just due
  - d. Also have to be exactly up to date with all aspects of rent, including utilities, parking fees, etc.
    - Individual General District courts may have different processes for how to pay rent into escrow
  - e. Many clerk's offices also do not have language interpreters
  - f. With the repair and deduct solution, most tenants simply do not have the upfront money to pay licensed professionals; even when they do, landlords can sue to evict tenants for not paying rent, leaving tenants to defend themselves in court
- b. Commission discussion regarding tenant's assertion bill
  - Chair says HRC sent City Council a letter a couple months ago with recommendations for legislative agenda, and it seems that this could be an addition HRC should consider making; asks what Commissioners think about supporting the bill
    - Notes it is rather late in the process, as General Assembly will convene 1/12/22
  - ii. Commissioner asks to clarify if HRC would be sending a letter to Council asking them to include the bill in their lobbying
    - 1. Yes, the Commission itself is unable to lobby, but it can make recommendations to Council
    - 2. Commissioner expresses full support
  - iii. Commissioner asks if it would be helpful to include more information about the amendment or what it would be named/proposed as, or if it will be included as a general priority
    - 1. Bill has not yet been pre-filed
    - 2. Chair asks Victoria to share the current version of the bill so the HRC would be able to describe it in more detail
    - 3. Victoria will check on current draft of the bill with the Virginia

Poverty Law Center, which takes the lead on most tenant/landlord lobbying

- Will be an amendment to the VA Landlord and Tenant Act, likely Code Section 55.1-1259
- iv. Chair offers to draft the letter as a person who was once a housing lawyer if it is the will of the Commission to do so
- v. Commissioner expresses support and thanks Victoria for sharing this information
- vi. Chair calls Commission to vote on supporting the idea that a locality can bring a tenant assertion by recommending City Council support the General Assembly bill

In favor: 8
 Opposed: 0
 Abstained: 0

- Commissioner asks to revisit Section 8 assistance contract between Midway Manor and the City to ensure there is a longer-term solution
  - i. Clarifies the contract was between Midway Manor and HUD
  - ii. Subsidy was re-authorized for only 2 years when previously it was 40 years
  - iii. Concerning because building is in a prime location and inhabited by elderly and disabled individuals who would have a very difficult time finding housing elsewhere
  - iv. Chair says HRC was planning on bringing up this issue at the affordable housing public hearing in the end of January
    - PHAR was interested in making sure that City Councilors are present at this hearing to have them listen to the poor conditions and lack of subsidy
    - 2. Does not know if there are any other actions HRC can take at this time to express concerns about the subsidy issue
  - v. Commissioner expresses frustration because the issue is not between Midway Manor and the City, so HRC has less room to operate; asks how HRC could have power in this situation
    - 1. Chair says if there were no ability to change this, the City should be thinking about alternative housing arrangements for this vulnerable population
  - vi. Commissioner suggests asking the City to make a plan, like incentivizing developers, in case the units go away in a year and a half
    - Chair asks Victoria if HRC will be able to cover all of this during the public hearing
      - Victoria recommends making some kind of visual/informational companion to organize the issues to be brought up at the hearing
      - b. Midway Manor is not the only property in the area that is facing the end of its subsidy contract
      - c. LAJC Charlottesville office has a database for when local subsidized housing properties' contracts end
  - vii. Chair says there will be another call between herself, PHAR, and LAJC after 1/1/22, so if anyone else from the Commission would like to help plan for the hearing, they can join this planning process

- 1. Wolfgang will join; Mary will send time and date of the next scheduled phone call
- d. Committee Reports
  - i. Accessibility Committee (Chair-Wolfgang)
    - Re-voting on HR21-1; slight change in wording at the bottom of the document-- "above and beyond minimum requirements" to "above and beyond legal requirement" upon recommendation from City Attorney
    - 2. Vote
      - a. In favor: 8b. Opposed: 0c. Abstained: 0
    - 3. Lyndele will draft a plain-language version to present at the next meeting
  - ii. Nominating Committee
    - 1. Jeanette, Andy, and Kathryn
    - 2. Jeanette reports committee sent out email with nominations form for the positions of Chair and Vice-Chair
      - Asked Commissioners to submit nominations for themself or another person by 1/7/22
      - Form asks respondents to provide a paragraph for why they are nominating a person, as well as features descriptions of what the positions entail
    - Nominations Committee will contact everyone and confirm, then send a proposed slate with the agenda packet when it comes out
      - a. At the meeting, there will be an opportunity to make any additional nominations
    - Vote will occur at the beginning of the next regular meeting; after the vote, the new Chair will then transition to leading the meeting

6. MATTERS BY THE PUBLIC

- a. PUBLIC COMMENT
  - i. Ange
    - Asks whom a tenant would contact to get involved with the process
      - a. Chair asks if this would be about a specific case or the legislative proposal
    - Ange asks if this process applies to tenants who do not have a formal lease
      - a. Victoria is no longer present, but Chair says everyone in Virginia has a presumption of a lease
        - However, the statute is very technical, so Chair recommends contacting LAJC for assistance if they are interested in getting involved
- b. COMMISSION RESPONSE TO MATTERS BY THE PUBLIC
  - i. None

  - 5. Encourages those not present at the meeting to review the notes
  - 6. Lyndele adds a link in the chat to the draft poll; asks for comments or suggestions on how best to ask the public
    - a. Format is to pick the two issues a respondent deems most important to talk about
  - 7. Commissioner asks if there is a current plan on how to release poll to the public
    - OHR staff has not yet asked Communications, as he wants to be cognizant of their capabilities since they will soon be down another staff member
      - Also has not asked about availability for the housing meeting in the last week of January nor the town hall meeting in February
      - ii. Will do this outreach soon

c. Wolfgang

- i. Asks if Commissioners can advertise the reopening of the HRC membership application through their own channels

  - 2. Just be sure to wait until the applications are reopened
  - Jessica encourages fellow Commissioners to reapply, as she feels that the Commission is getting into some very worthwhile work
- ii. Asks if there will be another retreat for Commissioners in the beginning of the year

Election of the Chair and Vice-Chair Adopted March 20, 2014

The Human Rights Commission Rules and Procedures (2.2) provide that a Chair and Vice-Chair shall be annually elected. This is to set forth the customary procedure as modified from the 2013 City Attorney memo regarding the election of Mayor and Vice-Mayor for the City of Charlottesville.

- 1. The Director will Chair the meeting during the officer elections process.
- 2. The Director will ask for nominations for the Office of Chair.
- 3. Only names that are moved and seconded will be placed in nomination. Any Commission member may move or second his or her own name.
- 4. After one or more persons are nominated and it appears that no one else wishes to make a nomination, the Director will ask if there are any further nominations. If there are no responses, the Director will declare that nominations for the Office of Chair are closed.
- 5. Commissioners will then vote on the first person nominated for the Office of Chair. A Commission member who is nominated may vote for himself or herself.
- 6. If a majority of those present and voting affirmatively vote for the first candidate, that person is elected Chair and there is no further voting. If the first candidate does not receive a majority, the Commission will then vote on the second person nominated. If no nominee receives a majority, there will need to be a motion, second and vote on reopening nominations.
- 7. After a Commissioner is elected as Chair, the same procedure will be followed for the election of Vice-Chair. Following the election of the Vice-Chair, the newly-elected Chair will chair the remainder of the meeting.

Office of Human Rights Todd Niemeier Monthly Staff Report January 2022

Service Provision Data:

- Data entered through the end of December 2021
  - o Data for open and closed inquiries and complaints has been updated.
  - o Lily Gates, OHR Intern, continues to be the data entry superhero Thanks, Lily!
  - o I removed the "Formal Investigations" data from the bottom of the data chart because some cases move in and out of investigation and the information is better reflected in the individual cases section below.
- Revisiting a secure web-based customized case management system with IT
  - o OHR Staff received confirmation that One Drive provides an equal level of security for confidential data as the internal network.
  - o Given the functionality of the Excel-based system and the ability for OHR staff to modify the system as needed without IT support, we will move the current system to One Drive in 2022 to allow for multiple users to simultaneously enter data into the system, which was a primary barrier of the system previously.

- 2020 Departmental Scorecard update completed
  - o Link to Scorecard: Human Rights (clearpointstrategy.com)
  - o Data for individual service satisfaction surveys from 2019 and 2020 entered.
  - Need to create and distribute collaborative partner satisfaction surveys
    - This may be something we have to develop in early 2022
- 2020 Annual Report in progress
  - Will use Departmental Scorecard as basis for the annual report
  - No requests from Council yet for annual or quarterly reports
  - No progress made on the report this month, as intake and service provision continue to dominate staff time
- Amendments to Charlottesville Human Rights Ordinance for FHAP substantial equivalence under review
  - o Draft amendments completed and under review by Deputy City Manger for REDI and City Attorney's Office
  - Met with DCM for REDI and Deputy City Attorney on 12/15/21
    - They had questions about the added obligations that the revisions place on the City Attorney's Office and asked TN to get more information about potential workload
  - OHR staff met with the Director of the Fairfax County OHR on 01/10/22 to ask about their experience with attorney workloads under the FHAP
    - OHR staff presented the following to DCM for REDI and Deputy City Attorney on 01/10/22 for review
      - For the first 7 to 8 years of the FHAP workshare most cases settled through mediation
      - Over the last few years there has been an uptick in cases filed in court
        - This has proven highly dependent on the complainant, i.e. unrealistic expectations for settlement coupled with the realization that with a determination of probable cause they can elect to go to court, so they may hold out for a determination
      - During the busiest year, 6 or 7 cases went to court, but this was unusually high
      - Because the remedies under Virginia and federal law are comparable for housing discrimination civil suits, most cases were filed in state court
      - Additionally, not all housing cases are dual filed with the OHR and HUD
        - o Each case is reviewed and a decision is made on a case by case basis in collaboration with HUD

- The Director of the Fairfax OHR also stressed the importance of having sufficient staffing in place prior to turning the key on the FHAP and to work in close partnership with the City Attorney's Office at all stages of the complaint process, especially if the evidence looks like it may lead to a determination of probable (or reasonable) cause
- No new work on FEPA agreement, as FHAP process take precedence
  - Recall that the FHAP agreement provides substantial opportunities and resources to expand and improve the OHR, whereas the FEPA really only just increases workload with insufficient support to increase staffing or training
- Looking into EEO processes for City employees through OHR
  - During the meeting with the Director of the Fairfax County OHR, OHR staff asked about their processes for handling County employee complaints of discrimination
  - o They have a separate ordinance that guides their internal EEO process, which is separate from their processing of complaints as a FEPA
  - The EEOC still handles employment complaints filed against the County by County employees, but the OHR will often have done an internal EEO investigation ahead of the EEOC complaint filing, which informs the County Attorney's response to the EEOC
  - o The Director of the Fairfax County OHR shared both their EEO ordinance as well as their Human Rights Ordinance for review

CHARLOTTESVILLE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH A CITYWIDE LANGUAGE ACCESS PLAN RESOLUTION #: HR21-1

*PLAIN LANGUAGE VERSION*

The purpose of the Charlottesville Human Rights Commission is to act as a strong advocate for justice and equal opportunity.

The Human Rights Commission recommends that the City of Charlottesville develop and use a Citywide Language Access Plan that supports the right of all residents to communicate with the City in their preferred language.

A citywide plan is important because an estimated 15.7% of Charlottesville's population speaks a language other than English at home. A citywide plan will:

- allow people with limited English language proficiency to make use of City services
- show the City's commitment to serving all members of the public
- act as a citywide policy to support all staff in meeting the City's commitment to providing meaningful access to all residents
- support Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

This recommendation is guided by City commitments to:

- make electronic communication accessible to all members of the public
- work to make City services accessible to everyone
- ensure that residents have access to information about their rights and resources
