 - vi. Director asks Commissioners whether they would like to hold the retreat in place of regular meeting on 03/16/23
 - 1. Retreat can last up to 4 hours; most Commissioners would be

- able to meet during the day on 03/16/23 (would not still hold regular meeting in the evening)
- Council has scheduled a budget meeting at 5pm on this date, so it would be advantageous to hold the retreat earlier in the day and end before 4:30pm
- 3. Friday 03/17/23 would also be an option as there are no other scheduled meetings in CitySpace
- 4. Commissioners decide to send a survey to the Commission to allow all members to submit their time preferences
- 5. Options are 9am-1pm on 03/16/23,12pm-4pm on 03/16/23, 9am-1pm on 03/17/23,12pm-4pm on 03/17/23, or 4pm-8pm on 03/17/23

 - 1. This chart of comparison over the years of incoming contacts exists in the in-progress CY2022 Annual Report
 - 2. Commissioner also asks about lack of referrals to Sin Barerras
 - Director says there were no referrals from or to Sin Barerras this year; referrals are dependent on the nature of the inquiry
 - 3. OHR Intern shows Commissioner OHR data through time (chart will be available in the 2022 Annual Report
 - Explains that every contact type (complaints, inquiries, general contacts, etc.) have almost always steadily increased over time
 - i. Besides in 2020 due to COVID
- x. OHR Director says there were significantly more resolutions through mediation this year due to the partnership which began in 2021
- xi. Commissioner asks about data collection process
 - OHR staff receive contacts from individuals via phone calls, emails, texts, in-person visits, etc., which are all inputted into an Excel spreadsheet
 - Commissioner asks about the possibility of getting a Computer Science major from UVA to streamline the database and assist with data-gathering (and potentially remove some of the work it requires to maintain the current database)
 - Excel works because it is accessible, and getting a new interface would require more training, a person who is familiar with the technology, and significant amounts of work to make it comparable with the Excel database
 - 3. OHR staff are still open to getting more help with technology
 - a. If there is anyone interested in having a conversation, they can reach out to the OHR
- xii. OHR intern asks about the contents of Resolution A18-2

- 1. This resolution established a UVA student liaison who would be a non-voting member of the Commission
 - a. Eventually, contact with the affiliate disappeared, so the HRC decided not to continue pursuing the partnership
- xiii. Commissioner asks whether this presented data and personal information of individuals are connected in any way
 - This data is from a case management database;
 Commissioners will never see the personal information of individuals, though contacts are tied to specific people in the database
- xiv. Commissioner asks about the outreach section of the monthly report and how the HRC can support the OHR's work
 - OHR Outreach specialist explains that she has been working with an animator to create OHR videos describing each of the five protected activities
 - a. During the summer, OHR staff worked on drafting and recording scripts for each protected activity
 - b. Currently still working on the first video, which can be shared once complete
 - 2. There is also going to be a panel discussion with the Disability Law Center from Richmond
 - a. Zoom or hybrid meeting
 - Working on including other voices to discuss reasonable accommodations etc., as well as disability as a protected class in general
 - 3. Will share updates as they come
- xv. Commissioner asks about getting the videos translated into Spanish
 - Currently, they are only planned to be in English, and OHR staff are only focusing on the first video for now, but Spanish translations should be possible eventually
 - OHR Intern adds that adding Spanish audio to the same videos should be relatively simple to create (if this would comply with copyright laws)

- d. Future committee times
 - Commissioner asks whether the 02/02/23 and 03/02/23 Combined Committee meetings will count toward the 25% rule for virtual meetings
 - It will still count since there is no other space for the HRC to reserve
 - ii. Individuals can still meet virtually for as many meetings as needed as long as they qualify for certain criteria under state law
 - iii. 25% of 12 meetings would give Commissioners one more opportunity for an all-virtual committee meeting during 2023 after 03/02/23

 - If you see some of the January numbers change when we report next month, it may be because we caught an error in one of our new formulas

Outreach:

Victoria McCullough, Community Outreach and Administrative Specialist for the Office of Human Rights, continues to connect with and develop relationships with community partners, including participation in weekly meetings to support our community's homeless population and monthly meetings with service providers to get updates on public housing, re-entry after incarceration, and addiction recovery support. Since last month, besides weekly Coordinated Entry Systems meetings with homelessness support agencies, this has also included attending the following in-person events: two partner agencies' Open Houses, and participating in Housing Opportunities Made Equal's (HOME) Fair Housing Community Conversation. The latter, which was hosted by the Thomas Jefferson Planning District, was a community conversation for service providers to discuss housing needs and barriers, facilitated by HOME as a listening session. This two-hour session sought answers to questions like, how do Charlottesville renters and homeowners know their rights under Fair Housing law, how do members of our community find rental housing, and what barriers exist for renters and homeowners in our community in addition to affordability issues. Central Virginia Legal Aid Society's Open House introduced service partners to their new location on Water Street, and Haven's Open House showcased a variety of services that the day shelter offers, from guest services including laundry and mail services to navigation services like rapid rehousing, and included a presentation by their new executive director. Lastly, this month the Office of Human Rights also connected with the regional Equal Employment Opportunity Commission in Richmond, to learn more about their process.

Victoria continues contributing significant time to assisting with incoming inquiries and individual service follow-up, including with navigation/ referral services to legal, social work, and other community resources in cases where client needs fall outside our office's jurisdiction. The office is also working on creating new educational materials, including working with a graphic designer to create short videos on protected activities under the Human Rights Ordinance.
