

Special Joint Session of CRB and City Council

CRB Meeting minutes: 4/17/19

Location: City Council Chambers

Present: CRB—Guillermo Ubilla, Gloria Beard, Sarah Burke, Josh Bowers, Rosia Parker, Katrina Turner
City Council—Heather Hill, Wes Bellamy, Nikuyah Walker, John Blair (City Attorney)

Chair: Rosia Parker (CRB); Mayor Walker (City Council)

Minutes: Josh Bowers

---

- Welcome & Introductions:
  - Mayor Walker called the meeting to order for City Council
  - Rosia Parker called the meeting to order for the CRB

- The Model:
  - Sarah Burke set forth the agenda that we're going to discuss the bylaws and the model tonight.
  - First, Rosia Parker talked about the importance of this model for Charlottesville and its community.
  - Sarah, Guillermo, and Josh ran City Council through a presentation of the model.

- Q & A
  - Council asked a series of questions about the model and next steps.
  - The Council intends to have discussions with LAJC and CPD and other stakeholders to determine what they think of the overarching model.
  - Council plans to come back to us in a week or so with their impressions, and if we need to extend our terms, they're open to it.

- Q & A from the public:
  - Kate Fraleigh (question about complaint numbers)

- Walt Heinecke (doesn't hear the urgency from the board, and thinks that the Human Rights Commission was done wrong)